HISTORIC LIVINGSTON

Livingston has always been an important part of connecting the west. In 1806, Captain William Clark, Sacajewea, and other members of the Corps of Discovery camped here while following the Yellowstone River. Eighty years later, the Northern Pacific Railway chose the area as an important stop along the route, and named the town after its director Johnston Livingston. The railroad gave life to the town until the 1980s, and since then Livingston continues to connect people with the western spirit through tourism, the arts, and providing a spectacular place to live.

- Historic legend Calamity Jane called Livingston home for several decades in the late 1800s.
- In 1938, Dan Bailey started his legendary flyfishing business, and it is still a destination for anglers today.
- In 2016, Livingston was named Montana's Outstanding Film Community.
- Livingston was 2017's Montana Office Of Tourism and Business Development's Community of the Year.

"YOU CAN'T BE UNHAPPY
IN THE MIDDLE OF A BIG,
BEAUTIFUL RIVER."

- JIM HARRISON

LIVEABLE, AFFORDABLE, AUTHENTIC

Located along the legendary Yellowstone River and guarded by the Absaroka, the Crazy, and the Bridger Mountains, Livingston is a hard-working and vibrant town of just over 7,000 people. With an inviting mix of classic and modern Montana lifestyles, Livingston is home to a wide variety of community events such as the Livingston Hoot Music Festival, summer Art Walks, the Livingston Roundup Rodeo and Fourth of July Parade. It's an artistic person's paradise, a fisherman's piece of heaven, and an active person's year-round dream.

- Livingston's elevation is 4,500 feet.
- Top employment industries are: Retail trade (15%); Manufacturing (15%); Construction (12%); Professional, scientific, and technical services (10%); Agriculture, forestry, fishing and hunting (6%); Mining, quarrying, and oil and gas extraction (6%); Accommodation and food services (5%)
- Livingston has been featured in many movies, most notably A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, Rancho Deluxe, and A Plumm Summer.
- Yellowstone National Park less than an hour's drive though the breath-taking Paradise Valley.

“IT SEEMS TO ME THAT MONTANA IS
 A GREAT SPLASH OF GRANDEUR.
 THE SCALE IS HUGE BUT NOT OVERPOWERING.
 THE LAND IS RICH WITH GRASS AND COLOR,
 AND THE MOUNTAINS ARE THE KIND I WOULD CREATE
 IF MOUNTAINS WERE EVER PUT ON MY AGENDA.”

~ JOHN STEINBECK
